

“ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations... ”

Throughout history, God has moved people for His purposes, and international students are no exception. Students from nearly every nation are coming to America to pursue their dreams, and many of them are our sisters and brothers in Christ. As Bridges, we are driven by Christ’s commission to “make disciples of all nations.” Our mission is to befriend, equip, and mobilize Christ-followers to reach the nations on their campuses and beyond.

Engaged Disciple

A follower of Jesus who has intentionally engaged non-believers in a spiritual conversation within the past semester.

Multiplying Disciple

A follower of Jesus who is engaged in the Great Commission and making new disciples within the context of Win-Build-Send ministry. A multiplying disciple will seek to reproduce their faith by teaching others to do the same.

Ways to Engage Believers

“Ways to Engage Believers” embraces a proactive approach, welcoming Christian students from around the world and inviting them into the Bridges International family. There are two experiences to interact with in this document. Click either “Experience A” or “Experience B” below to learn more.
